PETE SANSTOL

Still the leading challenger for the World's Bantam title, Pete has had a couple of tune-up bouts in New York, and is in very good shape for this important bout. He figures to outpoint Huat to-night.

PETE SANSTOL, le merveilleux boxeur poids coq norvégien, le plus logique aspirant à la couronne des 118 livres, détenue par le boxeur de couleur Al Brown, nous revient plus en forme que jamais. Le blond Pete, qui a dû avaler le microbe de la vitesse, s'emploiera à fond pour enlever une décision de 10 rondes au puncheur français, Eugène Huat.

Harry Gerson former provincial flyweight champion, now a full fledged bantam is another to turn pro. He has placed himself under Lou Wyman's management and will most likely appear on the next show to be staged at the Forum.

Barney "Baby-Face" O'Connell, has just signed a 3 year contract with Jack Rogers as his manager. O'Connell fought last week in Quebec winning a ten round decision over Charlie Beaupre. He also won over Joe Marciente on the big charity show, at the ball park and is going very good right now. His manager Jack Rogers has intentions of appearing at the next meeting of the Montreal Boxing Commission to file a claim for the Canadian featherweight championship, which is now vacant.

Benny Brostoff, well known here, scored a 3 round knockout over Johnny Slavin of New York in the main event of a 10 round bout, at Sherbrooke, Quebec, last Monday Oct. 17th.

Art Primrose local lightweight fought an 8 round draw with Larry Mercier of Berlin, N. H. in the semi-final.

George Harrington, the Edmunston, N.B. welterweight has arrived in town and is very anxious to meet the winner of Billy Hogan and Jerry Emard bout to-night. George is well known in Montreal having appeared here once with good success. On October 7th, last he defeated Johnny Nemis by a knockout at Edmunston. He has also won several other bouts in the state of Maine.
